From my desk,

15 Year Celebration

This month, I am proud to say that we celebrate a 15 year strong partnership with one of our clients, Eardley Motteram Lawyers. It always brings us great satisfaction when such milestones are achieved, and it is also a timely reminder to all of our staff, not to take clients for granted and to maintain those high standards we strive for everyday. This is a testimony of the good work they perform day-in day-out – as always we keep looking for ways in which we can improve our service levels and the overall experience.

On Wednesday the 7th of March, we celebrated with Eardley Motteram Lawyers and their staff of 30, with a piece of Birthday cake, even had a couple of balloons.

We at SIMCOM certainly look forward many more years of service and would like to thank Eardley Motteram Lawyers for their trust, friendship and support.
